From Tuesday January 25. to Saturday January 29. 1742.

Petersburg, Dec. 28.

THE Swediſh Deputies are arrived here, namely, Count Bonde, Baron Hamilton, and Baron Sheffer; but they have not yet had an Audience of the Czarina, or the Great Duke.

Oporto, Dec. 31. Captain Loſting of His Majeſty's Sloop the Wolf, has put about 30 Hands on Board the Spaniſh Privateer Schooner, which he lately took at Marin, in the Entrance of the River of Porto Vedro, and has made her a Cruizer, whereby ſhe will be very ſerviceable for the Protection of the Trade here, as ſhe goes well, and will be able to keep as cloſe in with the Shore as any of the Privateers. The Fly is come from Lisbon, and is now off this Bar, and a ſmall Sloop of Eight Guns and Forty Men, having a Letter of Marque, hath been fitted out here by ſome Members of the Factory, and is alſo cruizing upon the Coaſt, ſo that the Trade to this Port is ſufficiently ſecured from being annoyed by the Privateers out of Galicia.

Prague, Jan. 9, N. S. We are here taking an Inventory of all the Effects left by the French, and yielded by Capitulation to her Majeſty; among which we have found a great Number of Cannon, and ſeven hundred thouſand Cartouches charged. All the Queen's Troops, excepting this Garriſon, are already upon their March towards the Upper Palatinate. We hear from Egra, that the French have left only one thouſand Men to garriſon that Place.

Vienna, Jan. 19, N. S. By the breaking up of the Ice in the Danube upon the late Thaw, the great Bridge call'd the Bridge of Tabor was carried away, and we hear that the Bridge at Crems was likewiſe deſtroy'd. Sir Everhard Fawkener, his Britannick Majeſty's Ambaſſador to the Porte, arrived here the 16th inſtant from Conſtantinople in his Way to England.

Naples, Jan. 8. Laſt Week Muſtafa, Bey of Berno, had his firſt Audience of the King, to compliment him on the Part of the Bey of Tripoli, and preſented to his Majeſty 15 Barbary Horſes, two white Dromadaries, a Lyon, two Tygers, &c. which that Bey ſends to the King.

Turin, Jan. 12. The King of Sardinia's Army, after having left the Camp at our Lady of Mians, and retired to Montmeillan, continued its Retreat in two Columns in good Order, by two different Roads. The Rear Guard of both was attacked and harraſſed, during the March, by Detachments of Miquelets and Spaniſh Grenadiers; but they were briskly received, and were neither able to do us much Harm, or to diſorder us in our Retreat. The utmoſt of our Loſs amounts to about fifty Men killed, and between three and four Score wounded; amongſt which only three Officers. The Loſs of the Spaniards exceeds three Times that Number, and our Army, Artillery, Stores and Proviſions are all now on this Side of the Alps.

Rome, Jan. 12. On the 27th paſt a Party of Sbirri went into the Juriſdiction of Spain, to take up a Perſon without the uſual Permiſſion; whereupon the Porters of the reſpective Palaces in that Neighbourhood fell upon them, killed three of them, and mortally wounded five more. On the 29th an Expreſs arrived from Milan, with Notice, that on the 23d died Cardinal Stampa, Archbiſhop of that City; and Cardinal Cibo, the laſt Male Heir of the Houſe of Maſſa, is ſince dead here. Cardinal Fini has renounced to the Pope all the Abbies and Eccleſiaſtical Benefices poſſeſſed by him, having, out of them, reſerved to himſelf a yearly Penſion of 1500 Crowns. The Pope has hitherto taken no Determination concerning the Requeſt made to him by the Court of Naples, &c. to diminiſh the Feſtival Days of the Year.

Florence, Jan. 15. N. S. M. de Gages has lately been attacked with a very ſevere Fit of Illneſs; there is likewiſe an Epidemical Fever among his Troops, of which many have died. By the laſt Letters from Lombardy, we are informed, that Marſhal Traun, on Notice of M. de Gages's Deſigns to ſet Fire to the Magazines of Proviſions, Ammunition, &c. of the Auſtrians, at Revere, on the 28th paſt, invited M. de Aptemont to a Conference at Carpi, in order to prevent that and any other Surprize the Spaniards ſhould attempt in the Modaneſe; in Conſequence of which, Directions were ſent to the Sardinian Troops, diſtributed in Winter Quarters in the Parmigiano, Piacentino and Paveſe, to hold themſelves in Readineſs to march.

Geneva, Jan. 25. N. S. The Reſolution of demanding a Body of 800 Men from the Cantons of Zurich and Bern, for the Security of this City, having been taken by the General Council, thoſe Troops are now expected here every Day. Notwithſtanding the fair Promiſes of the Marquis de Euſenada, firſt Miniſter of the Infant Don Philip, the Spaniards have quarter'd Troops upon our Eſtates of St. Victor and Chapter, who commit divers Exceſſes there. The Spaniards in the Dutchy of Savoy, are entirely ruining the whole Country. They plunder the Boors of all their Seed and Forage, ſo that in a little Time they will be forced to kill their Beaſts for Want of wherewithal to feed them. This affords a very bad Proſpect for us as well as for the Savoyards. It it impoſſible that any Place can be in a more miſerable Condition than Chamberry now is; it is no longer a rich Town, for the Inhabitants are obliged to provide every Thing neceſſary towards furniſhing the Hoſpitals for the Lodging of 4000 Men, and the whole Court of the Infant; and if the moſt trifling Thing be wanting, the Sindicks have immediately fifty Soldiers quartered upon them, who live at Diſcretion. All the other little Towns of Savoy are uſed in the ſame Manner. Don Blaize, Envoy Extraordinary from Spain to the Helvetic Body, has ſent his Secretary to Zurich, to preſent his Credential Letters. In them the King of Spain ſtiles himſelf Duke of Milan. Theſe Letters have been read in a Grand Council at Zurich, and they have been communicated to the other Cantons, whoſe Sentiments upon the Matter are expected, that a proper Anſwer may be given to Don Blaize. The Title of Duke of Milan will greatly embarraſs ſome of the Cantons, upon Account of their Agreement with the Houſe of Auſtria concerning the Milaneſe.

Hague, Feb. 1. N. S. We hear that the Corps of Marſhal Belleiſle, and the Detachment from that of Marſhal Broglio that has joined it upon its March, are expected to reach Spire before the 10th Inſtant.

Hague, Feb. 2. The Queſtion concerning the ſending a Body of Troops to the Aſſiſtance of the Queen of Hungary, which has been ſo long depending before the States of Holland, was this Day reſolved in the Affirmative.

Dublin, January 20. This being the Birth-Day of his Royal Highneſs the Prince of Wales, the Great Guns were fired at the Barracks, and anſwered by Vollies from the Regiments in Garriſon, which were drawn out upon Oxmantown Green. At Noon the Lords Juſtices received the Compliments of the Nobility and other Perſons of Diſtinction, who appeared at the Caſtle upon this Occaſion. In the Evening there was a Play given by their Excellencies, for the Entertainment of the Ladies. And at Night there were Bonfires, Illuminations and other Demonſtrations of Joy.

Whitehall, January 29.

The King has been pleaſed to grant the Dignity of an Earl of the Kingdom of Ireland, unto the Right Hon. Ralph Viſcount Fermanagh in that Kingdom, by the Name, Stile and Title of Earl of Verney in his Majeſty's Province of Leinſter.

Whitehall, Jan. 28, 1742-3.

Whereas in the Night, between the 10*th and* 11*th Inſtant, The Lodge of Benjamin Anniſs, one of the Page Keepers in his Majeſty's Foreſt of Whittlewood, in the County of Northampton, was conſumed by Fire; and whereas there is great Reaſon to believe, that the ſaid Lodge was maliciouſly ſet on Fire by Perſons unknown, Five Perſons having been track'd from the Place, ſoon after the Burning of the ſaid Lodge; His Majeſty, for the better diſcovering and bringing to Juſtice the Perſon or Perſons, who committed the ſaid Crime, is pleaſed to promiſe his moſt gracious Pardon to any one of them, who ſhall diſcover his Accomplice, or Accomplices, ſo as he, or they, may be apprehended and convicted thereof; and alſo a Reward of One Hundred Pounds to ſuch Perſon or Perſons, making ſuch Diſcovery as aforeſaid, payable upon the Conviction of ſuch Offender or Offenders.*

HOLLES NEWCASTLE.

And as a farther Encouragement for making ſuch Diſcovery, his Grace the Duke of Grafton does hereby promiſe a Reward of Fifty Pounds, to be paid upon the Conviction of the Offender, or Offenders.

GRAFTON.

War Office, Jan. 22, 1742.

Whereas the Regiment of Foot under the Command of the Honourable Brigadier General Charles Howard, is under Orders to embark forthwith for foreign Service. And whereas many Men have enliſted themſelves in the ſaid Regiment, and have ſince deſerted the ſame; His Majeſty is graciouſly pleaſed to promiſe his Pardon to all ſuch Deſerters as ſhall return to their Duty in the ſaid Regiment before it embarks, provided they have not inliſted themſelves ſince their ſaid Deſertion, and are not now doing Duty in other Corps. And whereas there may be many others at this preſent Time in the ſaid Regiment, who have deſerted from ſeveral other Regiments; His Majeſty is likewiſe pleaſed to declare, That it is his Royal Intention, that all ſuch Deſerters ſhall continue in the ſaid Regiment as belonging to the ſame, without being moleſted or claimed by the Officers of the reſpective Corps to which they did formerly belong.

By His Majeſty's Command.

General Poſt Office, London, July 3, 1742.

Whereas divers Perſons, thro' Ignorance or Carleſneſs, frequently put Letters into the General Poſt Offices, and the Receiving Houſes both in Town and Country, directed on board of Ships, and to Foreign Parts, without paying at the ſame Time the Poſtage, as ought to be done; And whereas Letters and Packets are often put into the ſaid Offices with Money and Rings incloſed, and in Fraud of his Majeſty's Revenue, divers Perſons preſume to ſend Letters with falſe and counterfeit Franks.

This is to acquaint the Publick, that no Letters under any of the Circumſtances aforeſaid have any Right by Law to be forwarded.

Note, That Letters going out of Great Britain (except to France, Holland, and Flanders) have by the ancient Uſage of this Office paid the Foreign Poſtage, and and are required by the Act of Parliament ſo to do, at the Office in Great Britain where the ſame are firſt put in.

Note alſo, That if ſuch Letters to Foreign Parts are put into any of the Country Offices, the Inland Poſtage of ſuch Letters to London muſt alſo be paid on putting the ſame into ſuch Office.

By Command of the Poſt Maſter General,
George Shelvocke, Secretary.
